This tariff is a tax.

Downs with Forakerism. Down with Cesarism.

Foraker will be knocked out in the third round.

A FULL Democratic vote is a Democratic victory.

Topp is crazy, but Wood the forger, is a non est man.

Vote a straight Democratic ticket without a scratch.

Downs with One Man Power. Down with Third-Termism.

Downs with Forakerism, and down

with Third-Termism.

"The Campbells are Comin'," and the other fellows know it.

Jim CAMPBELL is coming in away ahead on the "home stretch."

TARIFF Reform, Lower Taxes, Home

Rule, and an end of Fraud, Forgery and Forakerism.

The election of Campbell means Honesty, Economy and Good Government.

TANNER says he will never rest 'until he hangs the hides of Noble and Bussey on the fence.

We heartily favor home rule for Ireland, and we demand it for Ohio—Democratic Platform.

Down with Fraud and Forgery

Down with the Gangsters who use such political weapons.

A FULL Democratic vote is a Democratic victory. Therefore, see that every vote is polled.

"The Louisville Times" remarks that Mr. Halstead has demonstrated that he can eat dirt, as well as throw it."

FORAKERISM means frauds, forgeries, one-man power, registration, costly boards, and the extinction of home rule.

The Republican party in Hamilton county is still under the leadership and management of Topp, the "crazy man."

Wood, the forger, partner of Foraker's brother Jim, in the manufacture of ballot-boxes, is still a refugee in Canada.

REMEMBER, that Land Appraisers must be voted for on separate tickets, which are placed in a separate ballot-box.

GOV. GRAY, of Indiana will speak in Columbus to-morrow (Friday) evening.

Judge Thurman will preside over the meeting.

EVERYTHING is going Campbell's way this campaign and he will be elected as he always has been in a contest before the people.

For the murder of grocer Luca, in

New York, Charles McIlvaine has been sentenced to die by electricity on Monday, Dec. 9.

DEMOCRATS, give a few more days of earnest work to your party and your country, and a glorious victory will be your reward.

Republican Speculators Can Find Some Ready Money.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer.

A well known gentleman, who is entirely responsible and who will back any challenge he may make with money, called at the Enquirer office last night and proposed the following wager. It is conditional, however, that all bets must be taken. He will not take any one of them singly, but will make all of the wagers with any one that desires to accept the bet and bet the whole amount. Here are the bet-

$500 that Foraker doesn't carry Hamilton county.

$500 that Foraker doesn't get 15,000

plurality in the State.

$500 that Foraker doesn't get 10,000

plurality in the State.

$500 that Foraker will not be elected.

Two hundred and fifty dollars was posted at Regan's Club House, on Seventh street, last night, to bet on Campbell. The bets were to be divided as follows:

$50 even money Campbell will be elected.

$50 to $100 Campbell will have 5,000 majority.

$50 to $150 he will have 10,000 majority.

$50 to $200 he will have 20,000 majority.

$50 to $400 he will have 30,000 majority.

The bets to be taken together.

Mr. Reagan also has $500 to bet against $400 that Campbell will carry this county.

A Great Meeting in Cincinnati.

The Democratic meeting in Music Hall, Cincinnati, last Thursday night, was one of the grandest in-door gatherings witnessed in that city. Hon.

M. E. Ingalls presided. The local organ furnished the music, and played, among other airs, "America," "The Campbells are Comin'," "Star-Spangled Banner," and "Yankee Doodle." The Enquirer of Friday says:

Groesbeck, tall, erect and voiceful, called forth such storms of approbation as greeted Tacitus and Horace on occasions of great moment.

Thurman, aged and splendid amid the snows that have fallen upon and about his lofty brow, talked as Epamiondas and Cincinnatus talked, of battles won for human liberty and duties yet to be performed by the coming generations.

Voices, yet young and strong and eloquent, the younger Cato of the hour, voiced not only the living sentiments of his predecessors, but paid homage at the shrine of Democratic devotion.

It was a great meeting. It was a meeting such as Cincinnati will not see again for years.

The wonderful eloquence and the grand historic names came but once in a generation on the stage in any city.

"Boss" Quay Ignored.

Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, the Republican "Boss," is utterly disgusted and sweating and at the thought that he has received from President Harrison, who refuses to appoint any of the men he recommends, while he complies with the wishes of Secretary Wanamaker in regard to all appointments.

The President has agreed to appoint Wanamaker's man, John Field, postmaster at Philadelphia, in opposition to the protests of Quay and State Republican members of the city. It is said Field has not voted a straight Republican ticket for many years, and has been a leader in every movement to break up the regular party organization, so as to elect Democrats for local and State offices. But he is a "business" friend and associate of Wanamaker, and Harrison has been forced to acquiesce in his appointment, to "keep peace in the family."

Hear Hon. Andrew Roy.

Hon. Andrew Roy, a leading Republican of Southern Ohio, and State mine inspector from 1880 to 1884, writes to a gentleman at Nelsonville, O., as follows:

I have read Gov. Beatty's letters. He is an honest, able man and is doing the country invaluable service in his opposition to Foraker's candidacy for a third term. I know whereof I affirm in saying the leading Republicans of Ohio are with Beatty. Look at the Cincinnati Daily Times of recent date at the malignant attack on Senator

Sherman and the Republican congressmen. This is Forakerism.

I hope every independent Republican in Ohio will scratch Foraker and so bury the third term principle so deep that it never will be resurrected.

Entertaining such views, you are at liberty to quote me as often you please, even to the publication of this letter.

Yours very truly, ANDREW ROY.

Truth From a Republican.

Hon. John A. Kasson, Republican member of Congress from Iowa, said in a speech in 1886 on the present tariff

"It is an attempt against the laws of Providence to force the people of this country to pay more for what they need than the laws of Providence would otherwise require. The title of this tariff bill should be changed so as to read "A bill to prevent the diffused blessing of Divine Providence from being enjoyed by the people of the United States."

Let all honest Republicans ponder over this expression and learn how much truth there is in it.

The Republican papers have a great deal to say about Allen O. Myers, Tom Cogan, Buck Brady and Lew Bernard, who are all private citizens of Cincinnati, and not members of any office. But these gentlemen, with all their sins will favorably compare with Gov. Cox, of "Murderer's Corner," Bill Capper, Gov.

Topp, the "crazy man," Forger

Wood, and others, who have been taken into the confidence of J. B. Foraker.

WHEN men of such high character and intelligence as President Elliott of Harvard University, forsakes the Republican party and takes his stand with the Democracy, it speaks volumes in favor of the party that opposes monopoly and plunder, under the delusive name of "protection." The truth is the intellect of the country as well as its bone and sinew will hereafter be found on the side of the Democracy.

The Republican papers of the State are now openly advocating the third term principle, and are taking great pains to furnish their readers with a list of all the Governors that have been elected for a third term in the different States. Should Foraker be elected, (a calamity, however, that need not be fearful,) then these subsequent papers will not doubt set their brass god up for a fourth term and probably a life-term for Governor.

The New York World's observing

Columbus correspondent summarizes the Ohio political situation and draws conclusions as follows:

With Topp temporarily insane, ballot-box Wagon missing, J. B. Foraker and Jim Foraker fired, their guns are getting into a condition which demands a call from the ambulance. It begins to look as if there might be a Campbell tidal wave.

But George Cox, of "Murderer's Corner," Bill Capper, and Charley Baldwin are still on deck, to "do their master's will."

The Cronin murder trial is now progressing at Chicago, and the belief is expressed that it will be concluded in time for the jurors to eat their Christmas turkey with their families.

It is stated that big registration frauds have been discovered in Cincinnati and also in Columbus. This Republican law seems to be the premier instead of the preventer of fraud.

The Pittsburgh Post and the Cleveland Plain Dealer, two of the soundest and best Democratic papers in the country, appear in beautiful new dressings, giving evidence of deserved prosperity.

FORAKER is sick, Halstead is in the soup, Wood is a fugitive, Topp has resigned, Al Graham is in Canada, E. L.

Harper is in the penitentiary and the G. O. P. is not feeling very well here.
